THE TRANSCRIPT

OF THE

CHURCHWARDENS' ACCOUNTS

NOTE.

The abbreviated words in the MS. have been extended, except in a few cases where the meaning is obvious. The original spelling has been as far as possible preserved, save that "v" is written for "u" and "u" for "v" in many places. Capital letters are used more frequently than in the MS. for the names of Saints and for the Feast days of the Church, as well as for the names of persons and things. Doubtful words and passages are denoted by being placed within brackets; a blank within brackets signifies that I am unable to decipher or suggest a meaning for the portion of the MS. which is omitted. Where any considerable portion of the original is defective a separate note will usually be found.

The totals given at the foot of the accounts do not always agree with the sum of the addition of the several items: it may be possible at some further time to reconcile the discrepancies.

A. D. STALLARD.

[This copy has not been revised by me, and it requires examination with the original Manuscript.—A. D. S., 18 vii. '14.]

This transcript has been printed from the unrevised MS. of my late husband. Knowing his extreme accuracy I considered it best to place it within reach of the public exactly as he left it.

I thought it a pity that it should not be published after he had expended several years on the work, a word often taking many days to decipher before he was satisfied that it was correct.

CONSTANCE L. STALLARD.

[The remainder of this page, if it was written on, is now illegible; the appearance of writing is probably the impression of the ink from another page.]

[Folio 64 b contains a list of names in three closely written columns. Before and after nearly all the names are perforations, in most cases two, in some only one : the names are also with a few exceptions marked off with a cross in red ink, and before the majority of the names in the first and second columns (there are only two in the third column thus noted) is placed a capital letter "C."]

[Folio 65]

[This folio was placed in the MS. between the present folios 24 and 25 (A.D. 1469 and 1470). The entries, I think, belong to a later date, probably about A.D. 1505. It may be that the Churchwardens looked back to find a blank leaf in the MS. on which to make the entries, or the folio may have become displaced at some early period. Upon consideration it seems to me better to insert the folio in its present position. The hand is rough and difficult to read. So far as I can decipher it, it is as follows :—]

[ ] is [ ] ye parsells that Robard Segrave & John Halyday have reseyvyd to y^e be hoffe of ye Chersse.
